with 7,800 students
founded in 1924

As Lithuania's second largest city, Kaunas has a lot to offer. The low cost of living and good accessibility provide plenty of opportunities for travel and adventure. The facilities of the VMU in Kaunas are modern and student oriented. A close connection to the economy guarantees the practical relevance of the teaching contents. The warm and friendly student community is internationally oriented. An own International Office takes care of the needs of international students.
